

SPRING CREEK RANCH

WINTER YELLOWSTONE ADVENTURE PACKAGE

Experience the solitude of winter in the world's first National Park

December 26th, 2017 to
March 5th, 2018

Revel in Yellowstone's wondrous geysers, hot springs, expansive vistas, and abundant wildlife viewing during its most serene season—winter.

Winter in Yellowstone is wild. Yellowstone Lake is enveloped with a thick sheet of ice, boiling hot springs and mud pots contrast with a blanket of snow, and wildlife abounds, striving to survive the elements. Join Spring Creek Ranch's Resident Naturalist for an all inclusive 5-night journey through Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Park. This customized small group journey strikes the perfect balance between the rich wildlife and landscapes of Jackson Hole and a one of a kind over snow exploration into the depths of the world's first national park.

4 person minimum $3659.99/person, 2 person excursion $499.99/person . Call for alternate dates and occupancy pricing. Gratuity, Resort, Yellowstone utility fees, and sales tax not included. Subject to availability.

SPRING CREEK RANCH

SAMPLE ITINERARY

Day 1

Arrive to Jackson by ground or air and check-in to Spring Creek Ranch at 4pm. Meet our Resident Naturalist for orientation and a presentation followed by a three course dinner at The Granary

Day 2

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast at The Granary and then depart for a day of first hand wildlife encounters on the National Elk Refuge and Grand Teton National Park. You will begin your safari on the National Elk Refuge, looking for bighorn sheep, elk, birds or prey, and predators. Then you will take a sleigh ride on the refuge, getting within arm's reach of thousands of elk. You will warm up at the National Museum of Wildlife Art where you will have time to tour the world-class exhibits and enjoy lunch at the Rising Sage Café. Your day will conclude with a safari in Grand Teton National Park, where you will seek to appreciate the wild landscape that surrounds you. Dinner at The Granary and lodging at Spring Creek Ranch included.

Day 3

Breakfast is included at The Granary before departure for Flagg Ranch at 8:30am. This drive will give you the opportunity to see all of the remaining parts of Grand Teton National Park as you travel north towards Yellowstone's south entrance. After lunch at Flagg Ranch, you will aboard a state of the art snow coach and embark on an over-snow journey into the wilds of winter Yellowstone. You will trek to Old Faithful, with stops at waterfalls, Yellowstone Lake, and other geothermal along the way. Upon arrival to Upper Geyser Basin, home of Old Faithful, you will check in to Snow Lodge and then witness the eruption of the most famous geyser in the world! Dinner will be at The Obsidian Dining Room and lodging at Snow Lodge.

Day 4

This day is dedicated to exploring Yellowstone. Breakfast will be at the Obsidian Dining Room and the tour will begin at 8am. You will start by exploring the boardwalks around Old Faithful, which contain the highest concentration of geyser's in the world! You will then board the snow coach again and travel to neighboring geyser basins that contain black sands, boiling mud pots, and colorful springs, searching for wildlife along the way. If time and interest allows, an additional trip to the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone or the Madison River Valley is possible. Lunch in the field. Dinner at The Obsidian Dining Room and lodging at Snow Lodge.

Day 5

After breakfast, you will depart Snow Lodge around 8am, making you way back to Spring Creek Ranch, enjoying wildlife and scenery along the way. Except to arrive back around 3pm. Dinner at The Granary and lodging included.

Day 6

Breakfast at The Granary at leisure. Check-out at 11am. We hope to see again soon at the Ranch!
